Pooh the fly is very clever. One day, it stole the baby’s cookies. Then it stole the dog’s bones. The baby and the dog were very, very angry. They set a trap to catch Pooh the fly. They put a bowl of rice on the trap. Pooh the fly saw the rice and said, “I like rice, but I don’t like traps.” Then it picked up a piece of wood and put it on the trap. Then it happily flew away.
