

We Can't Find an Umbrella

5A Tiana Lam

Joyce went on a school picnic on Lamma Island today. She had an unforgettable day.

In the morning, Joyce and her classmates gathered at the school's kitchen to prepare food for the picnic. Joyce worked with her classmates and they made sandwiches, fruit salad, muffins, and orange juice. Then, they put them into a picnic basket.

After that, the bus had already arrived to pick them up at the school. Before they went on the bus, their teacher reminded them to double-check if they had brought the things they needed for the picnic. Then, they hopped onto the bus in an exciting mood. The bus driver dropped them off at the dock. Their teacher helped them to buy tickets for the ferry which they had to take. Joyce and her classmates were curious because they had never been on a ferry before.

Later, they arrived at Lamma Island. It was a long journey, the weather was sunny there. They saw a lot of ferries, boats, and jets on the clear, blue sea.

Next, they settled down on a large piece of grass. They took the food and drinks out of the picnic basket. Then, they pulled out a picnic mat and laid it on the grass. Finally, they could enjoy a picnic. They ate the food happily and they thought it was delicious. They fed the birds with some of their muffins and played fun games.

All of a sudden, the sky was covered with grey clouds and it started to rain. The teacher was finding the umbrella that she brought but she couldn't find it. Then, she realized that she had left it on the bus. It rained heavier and heavier. They saw a shelter in the middle of the grassland and they went inside immediately. The teacher said hopelessly, "Oh no! Now we must wait till the rain stops or else we can't go anywhere."

Luckily, a kind lady passed by and saw them, she said, "Here's an umbrella for you guys. Now you can leave." The teacher, Joyce, and her classmates said thanks to the kind lady and left safely.

At last, Joyce learnt that she must bring her own rain gear and not to be clumsy. They had an unforgettable day.

