

A Terrible Fire

P.6C, Carmen Lee

Last Sunday, Jack and Harry went to a forest because they wanted to go camping there. After setting the tent, they had nothing to do so they decided to take a walk in the forest.

When they were walking, they saw some black smoke in the forest. Then, they walked towards the smoke. Jack saw a tree which was on fire. He pointed to that tree and shouted, "Oh no! The fire is going to burn down the forest. Let's find someone to help." Harry said, "There is a chalet! Maybe we can find someone if we knock at the door." At that moment, there were some flying sparks and acrid smell coming from the forest. It was so dangerous, therefore the boys dashed to the chalet immediately.

When they arrived at the chalet, Harry knocked at the door, "Hello? Anybody here?" The door opened slowly and there was a woman behind it. Jack said, "Excuse me, there is a fire in the forest! It will burn down the forest if we don't do anything. Please help us and save the forest." The woman agreed and called the other villagers at once. The villagers took some buckets of water. Meanwhile, the fire spread quickly.

The villagers followed the boys to the fire. The trees were hissing, the flame exploded and there was some suffocating smoke. The villagers used their buckets of water to try to put out the fire. The boys worked hard because they wanted to save the wildlife and protect the environment. At last, they succeeded to stop the fire from burning down the forest.

The villagers thanked and praised the boys. Everyone was exhausted but delighted. After that, Harry and Jack felt good and they decided to be environmentalists in the future!

